KIANA, A TALE OF HAWAII.

This work is founded on one of the ancient traditions of the Hawalians, and illustrates their ancient customs and habits. It is dedicated by the Author to His Majesty Kamehameha IV.

CONFESSIONS OF AN INQUIRER; or, WHY

"This is a resume of life experiences in the spheres of the affections, art and religion. Whatever judgment may be formed of the author's philosophy of life, no one will question the frankness of his confessions. The descriptive portion of society and manners in Polynesia, with particular reference to the great question of the capacity of the Indian and Negre races for Civilization and Christianity, is of particular interest."—Exchange.

ART HINTS, ON ARCHITECTURE, SCULPTURE AND
